Message:

Good Morning,

I am in the process of building a home at 445 Pine Street and I have been notified by my insurance company that they need a copy of my plot plan showing where the house is located on the lot.

Do you have a copy of this and if so, can you send me a copy via email?

Thank you Sue

Your email was forwarded to me. The plan was listed on your deed and recorded at the registry. I printed it out and attached it to this email. Your builder should have this also. The bank usually requests what is called an "as built" which shows exactly where the house is on the lot. Otherwise, this is all that is available. Kathy, Assistant Assessor.
